Small Estates Declaration

How to fill in this form

This form should only be completed if a Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration are not being applied for, and the deceased's investment portfolio with us is not more than £30,000.

The Small Estates Declaration must be signed by the next of kin. The next of kin must be related to the deceased by marriage or blood. The intestacy rules govern the order of priority in which relatives of the deceased are entitled to the deceased's estate, as follows:

- Husband, wife or civil partner of the deceased.
- Son or daughter of the deceased (including stepchildren if formally adopted).
- Parents of the deceased.
- Brothers or sisters of the deceased.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

Submit the original form (we cannot accept photocopies) with:

- Original or certified copies of the investor's Will and Death Certificate.
- Bereavement Claim Form signed by all Executors/Administrators (if you want to sell the investment).

Please send the completed documentation to:

Waystone Financial Investments Limited
PO Box 384
Darlington
DL1 9RZ

VERIFICATION

IMPORTANT: INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED TO ALL EXECUTORS/SOLICITORS DEALING WITH THE ESTATE

Please note that in accordance with our obligations under UK legislation, we are required to seek evidence of the Executor/Administrator's(s) identity and address. To do so, we will undertake a search with Experian for the purpose of verifying the identity and address of an Executor or Administrator. Experian will check the details we hold about them and which you have supplied against any particulars on the database (public or otherwise) to which Experian may have access. Experian may also use their details in the future to assist other companies for verification purposes; a record of the search will be retained. We also reserve the right to request additional evidence. If this is necessary, we will write to you explaining our requirements and the documents that should be provided.

Your attention is drawn to the above disclosure, which explains we may undertake a search with Experian to verify the identity of an Executor. This applies to all Executors and this notice is deemed to be service of our intent in this regard.

If evidence of identity and address is required, please refer to A Guide to the Verification of Identity and Address for acceptable documentation. Should you wish to provide certified copies, our standards of certification are also explained here.
